

The book cover features a dark green background with intricate, swirling white and light green vine patterns. A large, light tan oval is centered on the cover, containing the title and author's name. Inside the oval, there are faint illustrations of purple flowers and a dragonfly. The title 'Dragonfly Summer' is written in a large, dark blue serif font, and the author's name 'Holly Taylor' is in a smaller, dark blue script font below it. On the right side of the cover, there is a dark purple vertical band with the word 'moda' written in a light-colored, cursive script.
